- Administrative
- EINARAK Policy Applicable to Payment of Post Differentials to Employees "on TDI" and on "Detail" to another post.

25X1A

RECORDED BY: [redacted]

Dated 5 June 1956

Dated 20 August 1956

[redacted]

1. Under date of 25 September 1956 the Office of General Counsel rendered an opinion covering the payment of differentials to employees traveling between foreign and territorial areas.

2. In substance, the opinion covers the following points which are made available as EINARAK policy and for purposes of assisting in advising employees whether foreign and territorial post differentials are to be paid in connection with TDI and "on detail" assignments:

a. In any instance where a POC employee entitled to a foreign post differential is assigned TDI or "on detail" to a territory or possession, such assignment is considered to be an assignment from a post classified for differential to a post or area classified for differential at a lower rate consistent with the standardised regulations, paragraph 115 g which indicates that posts within OINRA's territories and possessions are classified as "zero" for differential. The fact that the territorial post differential is more or less than the foreign post differential of an employee's permanent POC station is immaterial.

b. An employee POC at a territorial post assigned TDI for any period of time to a foreign post whether classified for differential or not is entitled to the territorial post differential for the duration of the assignment.

c. An employee FOB at a territorial post assigned "on detail" to a foreign post classified for differential is entitled to the foreign post differential for the duration of the "on detail" assignment regardless of the time element. The territorial post differential stops at the time of the employee's departure from the territorial post and is reinstated upon return.

d. An employee FOB at a foreign post classified for differential assigned TOT or "on detail" for 14 days or less to a territorial post is entitled to the foreign post differential during his TOT assignment.

e. An employee FOB at a foreign post classified for differential assigned "on detail" as defined in the Federal Personnel Manual, for a period in excess of 14 calendar days to a territorial post is entitled to the territorial post differential for the duration of the assignment. The foreign post differential stops at the time of the employee's departure from the FOA post and is reinstated upon the employee's return.

f. An employee FOB at a foreign post classified for differential assigned TOT for a period in excess of 14 calendar days to a territory shall become ineligible for post differential, territorial and foreign, during his TOT assignment. The foreign post differential stops at the time of the employee's departure from his FOA post and is reinstated upon the employee's return.

g. An employee FOB at a foreign post classified for differential assigned TOT or "on detail" for a period of less than 14 calendar days to a foreign post classified for differential at a higher rate is entitled to the post differential applicable to the employee's FOA post.

h. An employee FOB at a foreign post classified for differential assigned TOT or "on detail" for a period of 60 calendar days or more to a foreign post classified for differential at a higher rate is entitled to the post differential applicable to the TOT or "on detail" post for the duration of
